Summary:

Objective.

The purpose of the activity was to prepare SE students with Python language towards further preparation of campus placement.

Description:

Coder's Club of IT department has organized Python Training for SE IT students after the end of first semester from 8th Feb'23 for 10 days. The training consisted of theory session by industry expert Miss Asmita Gorse followed by practical session in afternoon. For guiding students to perform practical, BE students were appointed as mentors. While SE students enjoyed learning, mentors also showed enthusiasm in helping the learners.

Outcome:

Around 20 students are identified as top learner who can be further converted into good coders.
