SGPC members to visit Pune mandal making replica of Golden Temple today

DIPANTANATH
PUNE, SEPTEMBER 5

THE SHIKHANA Gurdwara Parbandhak Committee (SGPC), which has taken objection to the Chhatrapati Raja Ram Mandal at Sadashiv Peth in Pune because it depicts the Sikh Harmandir Sahib or the Golden Temple in Amritsar, has now decided to visit Pune to pursue the matter. Members of the SGPC are expected to visit the city on Friday afternoon and Chhatrapati Raja Ram Mandal officials have been informed that they will follow the decision that the former takes. "This (Golden Temple) is a place of respect and faith for us," said Hriday Nimbalkar, president of Chhatrapati Raja Ram Mandal on Thursday afternoon.

"Our intention was only to honour the Sikh faith. I found it exemplary that, at the temple, there was no VIP queue or special section. Everyone was equal. Premises were clean, there was discipline. There was no class system as people came as one and offered seva. After experiencing it for three days, I was deeply moved."

-HURDAY NIMBALKAR
PRESIDENT OF CHHATRAPATI RAJ RAM MANDAL

A press release issued by Rajinder Singh Dhani, president, SGPC, on Tuesday had said, "According to the 5th Saragat of the Sikh management committee of Gurdwara Guru Nanak Darbar Corp Area of the city is playing a leading role in this work, which is even more painful." According to the release, replica of the Golden Temple in Amritsar is prohibited. Meanwhile, work will be in full swing at the mandal in Shalgaon. Antiques storage point on gate streets will be removed. The work will be completed by the end of the month. The SGPC members, including Dhani, will arrive in Pune on Friday and will be staying at the Golden Temple. A trustee who did not want to be named, Nimbalkar added that this year, the mandal wanted to play a role in the Sikh faith in the year of Guru Nanak's 550th birth anniversary, so they decided to construct a model of the Golden Temple.

of the mandal, they had been asked by the SGPC to check if the Golden Temple was being correctly depicted. "We found it that the depiction was accurate. We were even invited for the inauguration. Later, we received a call from Amritsar saying that they had not granted permission for the mandal to depict the Golden Temple," said a trustee who did not want to be named. Nimbalkar added that this year, the mandal wanted to play a role in the Sikh faith in the year of Guru Nanak's 550th birth anniversary, so they decided to construct a model of the Golden Temple.

Temple and the Golden Temple. "We visited Amritsar in the past year. We also sent a letter detailing our plan to the SGPC in Amritsar on July 12. The SGPC asked for blessings to create a Golden Temple replica for our Gurdwara. We also followed up with all the 40 gurdwaras in Pune and explained our ideas. Accordingly, we went ahead with our planning. To create a Gurdwara Mandal takes two-three months as artwork has to be prepared," said Nimbalkar. He added that the team from Chhatrapati Raja Ram Mandal were welcomed at the Golden Temple and they were there. "The SGPC has been very cooperative in creating a replica of the Golden Temple. It not allowed. Our intention was only to honour the Sikh faith. I found it exemplary that, at the Golden Temple, there was no VIP queue or special section. Everyone was equal. Premises were clean and there was discipline. There was no class system as people came as one and offered seva. I had heard of this but after experiencing it for three days, I was deeply moved," said Nimbalkar, adding that the mandal, established in 1932, was the first to hold a sarvangi Gauri puja and its idol was created by the revolutionary Shrikanth Bhambhaniyanga. "We will not allow anything wrong to happen," said Nimbalkar. Incidentally, the Golden Temple has been depicted for the first time in the movie 'The Sikh' in 2015, and a Debraj Jaiswal film 'Amritsar' in 2019 and in Amritsar in 2022.

ATS probes transactions of accused who got Rs 9L for sharing OTPs, activating SIM cards

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
PUNE, SEPTEMBER 5

THE MAHARASHTRA Anti-Terrorism Squad (ATS) is probing financial transactions of an accused who is suspected of having received Rs 9 lakh for sharing one-time passwords (OTPs) and performing other tasks in an illegal telephone exchange, which had been operating from an apartment in Koregaon area of Pune. The Maharashtra Anti-Terrorism Squad (ATS) arrested two more suspects, Muhammad Uzair Shaikh, 31, of Akurdi, and Piyush Subhakar, 29, of the illegal telephone exchange case. Two were arrested Tuesday night while the telephone exchange was in the early hours of Wednesday. On August 24, ATS arrested a team from central department of documentation, and led an illegal telephone exchange at 95, Complex in Mitha Nagar, Koregaon. The ATS had seized some SIM boxes which contained 3,789 SIM cards, nine Wi-Fi routers, an antenna, an internet and laptop during the raid.

During the probe, three ATS arrested Naushad Ahmed Siddiqui, 32, of Shivajinagar, from Rajurbari. He was later handed over to the Pune unit of the ATS. The ATS produced all three accused before SK Dugarkar, judicial magistrate first class, in Shivajinagar. The court remanded the accused to ATS custody till September 10 for further investigation. Meanwhile, the investigation has so far covered more than 100 accused in this case. Assam public prosecutor Bodini Shukla said, "The study of the accused persons was sought to investigate if they provided meeting services to people from foreign countries."

Two school dropouts The prosecution said Gabbay was suspected to have received an amount of about Rs 9 lakh for performing tasks like sharing OTPs and activating SIM cards. Gabbay had done activities in a case related to computers, while the other two accused are school dropouts, said ATS sources. The probe includes determining with whom the accused shared the OTPs generated for the illegal telephone exchange, while the phone calls were directed, wherein the accused were involved in supporting any anti-national activities, and the quantum of the loss caused to the government through the illegal telephone exchange at Shivajinagar. During the probe, the ATS seized nine SIM boxes, 246 SIM cards, eight routers, 31 antennas, and an antenna. The three accused are also charged with illegal telephone exchange in Shivajinagar. Saathi: Where youths create an inclusive space for disabled students in colleges

TANAYANNEH
PUNE, SEPTEMBER 5

WHEN NISHITA Raje, an BA student at Modern College is not studying or attending lectures, he is working with Saathi Training Centre. First started at Ferguson College in 2007, the centre aims to create a friendly atmosphere for the students with disabilities in college campuses. As part of its activities, Raje works with the students with disabilities. He focused on about the emotional and social college years at Ferguson. He says, "I always wanted to social work, and Saathi gave me the platform for that. Apart from helping students, I have part in most of the other activities. It's a great experience."

through all the ups and downs, and I will always be grateful for this support," said Saathi, who is a student at Ferguson College. Students who volunteer with the centre also help with daily activities, such as assisting with writing assignments, and guiding students through administrative work. Through initiatives such as the Saathi Circle, students are paired with volunteers for study sessions, and the centre also provides blind students with Braille materials. Additionally, activities like My English Buddy pairs students with volunteers to help them overcome their language barriers. "The students help me in many ways, and I have learned a lot from them. Their support is truly invaluable," said Saathi.
