Report of Training Session on "Professional Ethics" for Teaching Staff

Date: 05/04/2020   Time: 10am

Mode: Online

Goal: To create professionalism and code of ethics among employees.

Objective: The main objective of the training is as follows:

- Define ethics in the workplace
- Compare examples of ethical & unethical actions
- Review reporting procedures & determine when to report
- Evaluate the causes of ethical dilemmas
- Establish ethical best practices for employees

Benefits:

- Provide guidance to new employees
- Avoid costly mistakes
- Invest in employees' professional development
- Create a professional environment

About Training:

Department of Electronics & Telecommunication, JSCOE, Pune had organized one day training for all the faculty members of JSPM's Jayawantrao Sawant College of Engineering Pune-28 on date 05-04-2020. The function started with the welcome of Guest for the training session, Dr. M. B. Tadwalkar, Professor E & TC department followed by the introduction of Guest by HOD of E & TC department Dr. C. A. Manjare. Dr Rajendra Kanphade Principal of J.S.C.O.E also expressed his views about the program. The session was then handed over to the trainer. During the session, he has explained all the objectives very clearly and also motivated employees to follow good professional practices and code of ethics for positive and healthy atmosphere in the institute. He has discussed the characteristics of professional ethical behavior like:

- Consistently acting with good values
- Demonstrating respect through dignity, diversity, and equality
- Guiding your actions with principles of confidentiality, honesty, and transparency in work and in conduct toward others

He also given some examples of unethical behavior happened at many places and should not take place in educational institutes:
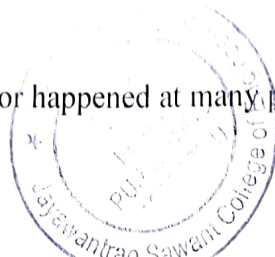

- Time, theft: Violating the organization's internet, computer, or social media usage policy; conducting personal business in college time.
- Dishonesty: Gossiping; spreading rumors; using false advertising to lure in society.
- Attendance: Chronic tardiness; absenteeism.
- Abusive conduct: Abusive behavior; bullying; coercion; threatening an employee for complaining about working conditions.
- Denial: Ignoring safety mandates; ignoring a potentially harmful problem at work; withholding information.

He, told being a professional means acting ethically, demonstrating integrity, treating everyone with dignity and respect, and owning up to mistakes. All attendees enjoyed the session with great enthusiasm. Around 35 faculty members attended the session. The list of faculty member is attached herewith.

The program ended by vote of thanks given by Dr. R. D. Gawade.

Takeaways

- Follow institutes policies and codes of conduct
- Fulfill your obligations
- Keep accurate records
- Avoid excuses
- Report problems & complaints immediately
- Treat everyone with courtesy and respect

Outcome: The program was beneficial and fruitful. The newly joined faculty members got inspired after attending the program and also had a experienced the practical experience by attending the sessions.
